6 CARRIER S RESPONSIBILITY

(1) PORT TO PORT SHIPMENT

(A) Where the Carriage is Port to Port, then the liability (if any) of the Carrier for loss or damage to the Goods occurring between the time of loading at the Port of Loading and the time of discharge at the Port of Discharge shall be determined in accordance with any national law making the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other rules compulsorily applicable (subject to Clause 4(2)) or in any other case in accordance with the Hague Rules Article 1-8 inclusive (excluding Article 3 rule 8) only.

(B) The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the Goods while in its actual or constructive possession before loading or after discharge, however caused. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in case and to the extent that any applicable compulsory law provides to the contrary, the Carrier shall have the benefit of every right, defence, limitation and liberty in the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other rules as applied by Clause 6(1)(A) during such additional compulsory period of responsibility, notwithstanding that the loss or damage did not occur at sea.

(C) If COGSA applies then the provisions stated in COGSA shall govern the Carrier s liability throughout the Carriage by sea and the entire time that the Goods are in the actual custody of the Carrier or his Sub-Contractor at the container yard, freight station or area immediately adjacent to the sea terminal before loading onto the vessel or after discharge therefrom as the case may be. Where the Merchant requests the Carrier to procure Carriage by an inland Carrier in the United States of America, such carriage shall be procured by the Carrier as agent only to the Merchant and such carriage shall be subject to the inland Carrier s contract tariff. If, for any reason, the Carrier is denied the right to act as agent only at these times, his liability for loss, damage or delay to the Goods shall be determined in accordance with Clause 6(2) hereof.

(D) If the Goods are discharged at a Port other than the Port of Discharge or (save in the United States of America) at a Place of Delivery instead of the Port of Discharge, and the Carrier in its absolute discretion agrees to a request to such effect, such further Carriage will be undertaken on the basis that the Terms and Conditions are to apply to such Carriage as if the ultimate destination agreed with the Merchant had been entered on the reverse side of this sea waybill as the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery.

(2) COMBINED TRANSPORT
Save as is otherwise provided in this sea waybill, the Carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to the Goods occurring from the time when he receives the Goods into his charge until the time of delivery to the extent set out below:

(a) an act or omission of the Merchant or Person acting on behalf of the Merchant other than the Carrier, his servant, agent or Sub-Contractor;
(b) the negligence, default, active or passive, of the Merchant or his servant, agent or Sub-Contractor;
(c) the lack or insufficiency of or defective condition of packing in the case of Goods which, by their nature are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed;

(i) any cause or event which the Carrier could not avoid as a consequence whereof he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(2) The burden of proof that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes or events specified in this clause 6(2)(A) shall rest upon the Carrier. Save that if the Carrier establishes that, in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes or events specified in Clause 6(2)(A)(1)(c), (d) or (e), it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The Merchant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not, in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of these causes or events otherwise responsible.

(B) Where the stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred can be proved by the Merchant:

(1) The liability of the Carrier shall be determined by the provisions contained in any other means of transport or national law of the country, which provisions:
(a) Cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the Merchant, and
(b) Would have applied if the Merchant had:

(i) made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier, and
(ii) received as evidence of the contract of carriage any particular document which must be issued to such transport international convention or national law applicable.

(2) Where 6(2)(B)(1) above does not apply, any liability of the Carrier shall be determined by 6(1) if the loss or damage occurred during a sea leg or by 6(2)(A) in all other cases.

(3) GENERAL PROVISIONS

(A) Compensation for loss or damage to the Goods shall be determined in accordance with Subject to the Carrier s right to limit liability as provided for within this sea waybill, the Carrier s liability shall be calculated by reference to the FOB/CA invoice value plus freight and insurance if paid. If there is no such invoice value, the value of the Goods shall be determined according to the value of the Goods at the place and time of delivery to the Merchant or at the place and time when they should have been so delivered.

(B) Package or Shipping Unit Limitation

(i) Where the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other rules apply by national law (subject to Clause 4(2)) or pursuant to Clause 6(2)(B)(1) the Carrier s liability shall be determined by the amounts provided in the applicable national law or in the law thereby made applicable.

(ii) If only the Hague Rules Articles 1-8 (excluding Article 3, Rule 8) apply pursuant to Clause 6(1)(A), Clause 6(1)(B) or Clause 6(2)(B)(2) then the Carrier s maximum liability shall be determined by the amounts provided in the applicable national law or in the law thereby made applicable.

(iii) Where Carriage includes Carriage to, from or through a port in the United States of America and COGSA applies pursuant to Clause 6(1)(A) or 6(2)(B)(1) neither the Carrier nor the Vessel shall in any event be liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the Carriage of the Goods in an amount exceeding US$500 per Package or customary unit of measurement.

In such case, if the actual value of the Goods exceeds such declared value, the value shall nevertheless be deemed to be the declared value and the Carrier s liability, if any, shall not exceed the declared value and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

(D) Delay, Consequential Loss

Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances be liable for direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by delay or any other cause whatsoever and howsoever caused. Without prejudice to the foregoing, if the Carrier is found liable for delay, liability shall be limited to the freight applicable to the relevant stage of the transport.
(E) Notice of Loss or Damage
The Carrier shall be deemed prima facie to have notified the Goods as described in this sea waybill unless notice of loss of, or damage to, the Goods, indicating the general nature of such loss or damage, shall have been given in writing to the Carrier or to its representative at the place of delivery before or at the time of removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under this sea waybill or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within three consecutive days thereafter.

The Carrier shall be discharged of all liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods unless suit it brought in the proper forum and written notice thereof received by the Carrier: (i) within nine months in respect of Combined Transport or (ii) within 12 months in respect of the Port Shipment and the Goods or the delay when the Goods should have been delivered.
